

Winter Leagues - Week 4

Tuesday, 13 February 2018 18:53

We are now half way through as the spring sunshine made a fleeting appearance last Saturday. The leaders remain Team J but with Liam Comerford set to undergo surgery (we wish Liam well) can they cope with his absence. Team D are back on form after a blip in week 3. Elsewhere just two shots separate 2nd and 5th. The 2nd half of the leagues promises more changes with teams worst scores being discarded, we are still a long way from knowing who will be crowned Winter League champs 2018.
